ASH WEDNESDAY:

The children and staff will be participating in Ash Wednesday chapel services this week on Wednesday and Friday. I wanted to share this little bit of information with you about the meaning of Ash Wednesday and why our Lutheran church does the imposition of ashes:

Why Ashes Today?

A contemporary Lutheran appropriation of the Imposition of Ashes should begin with the two-fold biblical understanding of ashes: as a sign of our mortality and as a sign of our repentance. Likewise, the traditional formula, "Remember, you are dust, and to dust you shall return," is most appropriate, since it paraphrases the words of God in the Garden of Eden (Gen. 3:19). By receiving the ashes, the worshipper acknowledges that God's judgment against our sin is right and just. But the ashes are also made in the sign of the cross—the very instrument by which our Lord took upon himself the punishment for our sin, in our place. Thus, the cross of ashes serves to remind us that we are sinners, and that Christ died for us sinners. This is exactly what the rite in Lutheran Service Book calls for.
